Excerpt: .that is within it as well as all that is outside of it, and can exercise its judgment upon it in every scientific aspect. In order to this, all that is needed is an adequate conception of the least separable particles of matter and the forces which actuate them or the movements which are normal to them. And why should such a construction be looked upon with despair in our day i It was not so regarded by men of science either in ancient times or at the revival of thought in modern Europe. And though it is usual nowadays to think and to speak very slightly of the physicists of ancient Greece and of the chemists of early Europe, I do not think that their insight into the economy of nature is to be altogether undervalued in comparison with that of our day....
