Excerpt: .This especially applies to measures 20, 24, 92 and 96. Few players of my acquaintance have developed the preparatory method of moving wrist and holding fifth finger steady enough to do this successfully. I throw the wrist down with steadily prepared fifth finger at the bass note, playing the other notes of the chord with finger action, the other fingers being raised for this purpose. The wrist should remain low, level with the key-board, but turning sufficiently to the right--inward--until after playing all of the notes in the chord. Where it proves helpful the fingers first raised or extended can be drawn inward somewhat as they play, thus adding strength to the touch. The trio, which begins with the last beat of measure 32, has the character of the wood wind instruments of the orchestra, clarionettes, oboes, flutes, etc., for its first eight measures; after this, call to mind the effect of strings in pizzicato with triangles and cymbals. I would call attention to the modulation of startling brilliancy to the key of D major in measure 93, and the return modulation in measure 94, fourth beat. The motive of three notes with which the trio begins: Also notice the continuation of this figure in thirds at measure 35, leading to a climax upon its third beat, and a syncopated accent on the second beat of measure 36, on the A flat. The following character, I, indicates the exact place and time for pressing...
