MATCHMAKER (PAPERBACK)

iUniverse, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Samantha Givens is the ultimate black diva. At 45, she is gorgeous, smart, and clever. She also has a secret agenda. Like her mother before her, Samantha has the amazing ability to pair up young lovers. But unlike her mother, Samantha is too ambitious to simply hook up the golden girls of urban America with undeserving thugs. As an option, Samantha establishes MatchMaker, Incorporated-a secret organization of beautiful black women intent on taking control of the country via sex. The BBBs-Beautiful Black Bitches-of MatchMakers are the creme de la creme of black America and Samantha will only match them with rich, powerful white men. In this way, the BBBs will be in a position to call shots as the power behind the throne. Overwhelmingly successful, Samantha has wed her designer line of living, breathing, gold-diggers to countless lawyers, doctors, and politicians across the country until there is not a facet of government where they are not found. Yet one prize has eluded her: The White House. So she sets out on the ultimate quest-to marry one of her BBBs to the man most likely to win the Presidency of the United States. But before she can marry him to one of the BBBs, she first must find him. Yet there is an even bigger problem: The woman most suited for the task of marrying him is the one least interested. Paris Hall, the only woman more beautiful than Samantha Givens, threatens everything.
