CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform, 2013. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Star Flights Bedtime Spaceship" is a charming and fun story with the purpose to help children unwind and go to sleep. The underlying theme is that everything is safe and under control as you float through space in your amazing home. The story also briefly touches on how important sleep is to our general health and how many things are working together to make sure we are ready for the next day. The story begins as though being welcomed aboard a spaceship by a flight attendant working for Star Flights. The attendant shares about how your home is actually a spaceship that launches into space as soon as you are in bed with your eyes closed. The story goes on to describe the ship's autopilot system which takes care of all operations aboard the ship and how it also generates power for the protective force field that surrounds the ship while in space. This is a peaceful bedtime story that touches on the value of a good night's sleep. Great for preschoolers, kindergarteners, and 4 to 8 year olds.
