Y., June 10th, 11th and 12th, 1884 The motion was seconded. The Secretary - Before the minutes are adopted I will ask that an error in them, which was due to the carelessness of the Secretary, or the oversight of the Reporter, be corrected. There is a resolution on page 97 of the last report, that the Executive Committee be instructed to revise the resolutions relating to the recommendation of standards, and report to the Convention what action, if any, is necessary to correct existing errors and discrepancies in the previous action of the Association. There is no record in the minutes of the adoption of that resolution. I would request that a resolution be passed correcting that error. It was agreed that the correction be made, and the minutes were then adopted as printed. The President then addressed the Convention as follows: Gentlemen of the Convention: Probably the purpose of the annual meetings of this Association, of which this is the eighteenth, cannot be expressed better than it is in the constitution, which you have adopted, which says: Sec. 1. The objects of this Association shall be the advancement of knowledge concerning the construction, repair and service of railroad cars, by discussions in common, investigations and reports of the experience of its members; to provide an organization through which the members, and the companies they represent, may agree upon such joint action as may be required to bring about uniformity and interchangeability in the parts of railroad cars, to improve their construction and to adjust the mutual...
