I feel encouraged in this undertaking by the serious intention you express of connecting yourself with that denomination, which, after due deliberation and prayer, shall appear to you, most conformable to the sacred scripture, in its doctrines and form of government. When a person is already determined, it is absurd to ask, and vain to offer advice. It is my duty and my pleasure to explain publicly, and from house to house, that system of doctrines, held by the church to which I belong. If it pleases God to render these instructions effectual in awakening the careless, in directing the serious inquirer, or in confirming the believer, to his name be the praise. But I sincerely pray, that God, in his mercy, may preserve me from that party spirit which would lead me to view it as a primary object to make proselytes. Indeed the man who cherishes party spirit is worthy of compassion, it suffering can render him such: for he must feel no ordinary degree of torture, on whose vitals such a vulture is continually preying. When this...
