Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Alumni Review, Vol. 11: The University of North Carolina The New Year On Thursday, September 28, the University got off to a fine start for a new year. Five new buildings were put into service, thirty-two new teachers of various ranks ranging from instructor to full professor joined the faculty group, and a student body of 1800 settled down to the tasks of the campus. Not only in new buildings and increased faculty and student body has the institution evidenced its readiness for the big job ahead. The equipment of offices, laboratories, and libraries has gone steadily forward, and the requirements for entrance have been held to the fifteen unit minimum more strictly than ever before. All along the line, there has been a distinct tightening up, and from all indications 1922-23 should be, and must be, Carolina s greatest year. University Day Thursday, October 12, the University s birthday, is marked down in the calendar of the University and of every alumnus as a red letter day. Although it has been celebrated 128 times in the past, the 129th anniversary will be attended here on the campus with fitting ceremonials, and within the State and beyond its borders, loyal sons will gather to honor the day. The program for the campus is distinctly worthwhile and will bring many alumni back to the campus. Wednesday night, the 11th, Secretary Grant of the General Alumni Association will bring the class secretaries of the various classes to the Hill for a conference on class organization. The same night the department of music will bring the Russian Symphony Orchestra to Memorial Hall. Thursday morning Walter Murphy, president...
